

Structured Credit Analyst and/or Portfolio Manager to join a specialized credit investor

Accunia Credit Management is a data-driven asset manager specializing in investments in structured credit established in 2008. Our 35 employees manage more than DKK 20 billion on behalf of institutional and private investors out of our offices in central Copenhagen.

Your Role

Accunia Credit Management is seeking a talented and motivated colleague with strong analytical skills and a passion for driving performance. Reporting to our Head of Investments, David Altenhofen, you will play a key role in managing structured credit products and optimizing portfolios.

As a Structured Credit Analyst or Portfolio Manager at Accunia, you will:

- Analyze structured credit products (CLOs predominantly) with a focus on performance and risk management.
- Contribute to portfolio management and optimization of investments including trading with investment banks.
- Prepare detailed reports and presentations for internal and external stakeholders.
- Monitor market developments to identify new investment opportunities.
- Collaborate closely with a team of dedicated and talented professionals.

Your Profile

The ideal candidate will possess the below:

- Strong analytical skills and a talent for data-driven decision-making.
- Experience/interest in structured credit products.
- Is a proactive team player with excellent communication skills.
- Have a keen eye for detail.
- Holds a relevant degree in economics, finance, or a related field.

What We Offer

At Accunia Credit Management, you will:

- Be part of one of Scandinavia's leading firms in structured credit.
- Work alongside industry experts dedicated to developing innovative solutions.
- The opportunity to flourish in a dynamic work environment with passionate colleagues.
- Gain opportunities for professional growth and career development.
- Join a collaborative workplace that values quality, responsibility, and teamwork.
